

The Fall 2023 Semester is in Full Swing!

Hello Everyone!

I hope your fall has gotten off to a good start!

A lot has happened over the last month so I thought I would send out a quick update on what we have all been up to here in Boulder.

Toward the end of September, we had our first annual Agapē feast. Agapē is one of the four Greek words for love that is used in the Bible. It is used specifically to describe the love God has for us. This was a really fun event that we would do every fall at CSU and so it was an awesome milestone to have our first Agapē feast this year at CU. This year, we had around 30 people connected to our ministry come over to our house for dinner and there was a lot of food, and it was an awesome night and time of fellowship. We had a lot of fun! At the end of the night, we took some time to honor one another and it was a really sweet time!

Also toward the end of September, we had another 24 hour time of worship and prayer. We did this in a building across from campus and it was put on and organized by a student that has been connected with our community quite a bit. It was really cool to see students having the desire and discipline to put on an event like this and to have the desire to fight for their campus in prayer. Also, not too soon after this, a group of students and campus ministries committed to praying for CU everyday over the coming weeks. It is so awesome to see how the culture of prayer at CU is growing and this is something that I have been praying for as well! So, it is really cool to see that prayer answered. Praise God!

Also at the end of September, Andrew and Jen Hemperly, the last couple of our team, moved to Boulder! We are all really excited to finally have them here in Boulder and have our team all here. They have been getting unpacked and settled in. They still have a little bit of support raising to finish up before going on campus full-time, but they have definitely added an element that was missing without them to our staff meetings and the time that staff spends together throughout the week.

Views from where we stayed for Men's retreat. It was so beautiful there!

A couple of weeks ago, we had our first Men's and Women's retreats at CU. This was another awesome milestone to achieve and both retreats were awesome and went really well. The guys all went to an AirBnB in Pine, Colorado. It was a really awesome weekend of brotherhood and hanging out together, and it was nice to get away for the weekend, seek God together, and just enjoy each other's company. There were a lot games played, good food consumed, a great hike together, and Erik Unruh led us in some time of listening, prayer, and reflection. Afterwards, we got to share with each other a bit about what our time with God was like during that and if there was anything specific that God spoke to us in that time. It was an awesome time and overall a really great weekend!

I couldn't do this work without you all and I am really grateful for all of your support! So, thanks again for all of your support!

Prayer Requests
Be praying that the prayer lives of the Christians on campus would continue to grow and that they would all have a renewed desire to fight for and cover their campus in prayer.
Also be praying that the daily prayer meetings that the students and ministries are starting would continue throughout the rest of the school year.
Continue to be praying that Andrew and Jen Hemperly would get their last bit of support raising done so they can join us on campus! Also pray that they would get settled in well here in Boulder.
